ELECTION COMMISSION INDIA

NEW DELHI

September, 19, 1961/Bhadra 28, 1883 (Saka).

NOTIFICATION

No. 56/1/61.—In excercise of the powers conferred by subrule (1) of rule 5 of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, and in supersession of its notification S.O.2149 dated the 26th September, 1959, the Election Commission directs as follows:—

1. The choice of symbols to be made by candidates at any election in a parliamentary or assembly constituency in a State specified in column 1 of the table below shall be made from the symbols specified against that State in column 2 or column 3 of the table and shall be subject to the following restrictions.

2. Any such candidate sponsored by a political party mentioned in brackets after a reserved symbol specified against the State in column 2 of the table shall choose, and shall be allotted, that symbol and no other symbol.

3. (a) Any other candidate shall choose, and shall be allotted, one of the free symbols specified against the State in column 3 of the table, and no other symbol.

(b) If two or more candidates have indicated their preference for the same free symbol, the returning officer shall decide by lot to which of them the symbol shall be allotted:

Provided that where a political party is mentioned in brackets after the symbol and one of the said candidates has been sponsored by that party, the returning officer shall allot the symbol to that candidate without drawing lots:

Provided further that where elections are held simultaneously in a parliamentary constituency and in one or more assembly constituencies comprised in it and a free symbol is to be allotted in accordance with the preceding proviso to a candidate at the parliamentary election sponsored by a political party, that free symbol shall not be allotted to any candidate at any of the elections in the said assembly constituencies unless he is a candidate sponsored by that political party.

(4) For the purpose of these directions, a candidate shall be deemed to be sponsored by a political party if, and only if, before the last date for the withdrawal of candidatures a notice in writing to that effect has been delivered to the returning officer of the constituency by a person who is authorised by the said party to send such notices and whose name and specimen signature have been communicated in advance to the said returning officer and to the Chief Electoral Officer of the State.
